4th letter to King Abdullah of Jordan

The Telegraph

Saturday 30th January 2016
Movenpick Hotel, Aqaba.

Your Highness,

Once again I am in Aqaba, this time bringing teddy bears and balloons for the Syrian refugee children and writing a book on mental health and spirituality for SPCK. I leave on Wednesday morning back to Amman and on to London with Royal Jordanian Airlines.

Layali tells me that you are here in Aqaba, so I am making one more effort to reach you with the letters I have written to you over previous visits. It would be good to meet you; if not here this time, perhaps back in London – my contact details are shown above.

So, enclosed once more are copies of the words previously sent concerning your father, Jordan and other matters together with an information leaflet of the little charity I chair in the United Kingdom,

Yours sincerely,

Jamie Summers

This letter was collected from the hotel by a King's messenger but sadly one has to say now :
